Packaged Christmas wafers (Oplatek) are now available for purchase. They will be available as long as our supply lasts. There are four wafers per package and cost $2.00 per package

Today's gospel reports "there is one among you whom you do not recognize." It is hard to believe Christ is present in a family with crazy schedules, suppers that start too late and end too early, cars that don't start, misunderstandings, frustrations, piles of laundry, unmatched socks and stretched food budgets. The list is endless. The words spoken at Mass, "The Lord is with you," are not a hope, they are a fact.

You may not be aware that a priest can not visit a patient in the hospital, nursing home, or at home unless notified that the parishioner would like a visit. If you know of anyone who is sick, in the hospital, or homebound and is in need of a visit and/or communion, please call the parish office. We also have forms at the back of the churches that you can fill out and leave in the office if anyone needs a hospital or nursing home visit.

If you know of a friend or family member of a parishioner who passed away, please let the parish office know. We have a volunteer that sends sympathy cards from the Parish, but we need to be made aware of the loss.

Lead Me Back to Bethlehem

CHRISTMAS MUSICAL

The Simple Gifts Choir will be performing this year's Christmas cantata "Lead Me Back to Bethlehem" on Friday, December 16th at the Corfu worship site of St. Maximilian Kolbe and on Saturday, December 17th at the Oakfield worship site of St. Padre Pio. Both performances will begin at 7:00 PM.

The Simple Gifts Choir was formed by members of St. Max and St. Padre Pio parishes four years ago. For the last three Advent seasons, they have been giving prelude to Christmas joy by singing the story of Christ's birth. This year is no exception. "Lead Me Back to Bethlehem", written by Pepper Choplin, is a rich, vibrant cantata. It gives voice to the longing we have to experience Christ's birth in a meaningful way when our busy, stressful lives distract us from the real message of Christmas. What a wonderful way for families to introduce younger children to sacred music and the Christmas story.

Although there is no admission fee, we ask for a "free will" offering which will be donated to All Babies Cherished.

Give yourself a treat. Plan on spending either Friday or Saturday evening rediscovering the Joy, Peace and Love of Christmas!

Gather with us afterwards, in the respective church halls, to share light refreshment and community.

I MET GOD TODAY

A little boy wanted to meet God. He knew it was a long trip to where God lived, so he packed his suitcase with Twinkies and root beer and he started his journey. When he had gone about three blocks, he met an elderly man. The man was sitting in the park just feeding some pigeons. The boy sat down next to him and opened his suitcase. He was about to take a drink from his root beer when he noticed that the man looked hungry, so he offered him a Twinkie. The man gratefully accepted the Twinkie and smiled at the boy. His smile was so pleasant that the boy wanted to see it again, so he offered him a root beer. Again, the man smiled at him. The boy was delighted! They sat there all afternoon eating and smiling, but they never said a word. As it grew dark, the boy realized how tired he was and he got up to leave, but before he had gone more than a few steps, he turned around, ran back to the man and gave him a hug. The man gave him his biggest smile ever.

When the boy opened the door to his own house a short time later, his mother was surprised by the look of joy on his face. She asked him, "What did you do today that made you so happy?" He replied, "I had lunch with God." But before his mother could respond, he added, "You know what? God's got the most beautiful smile I've ever seen." Meanwhile, the elderly man, also radiant with joy, returned to his home. His son was stunned by the look of peace on his face and he asked, "Dad, what did you do today that made you so happy?" He replied, "I ate Twinkies in the park with God." However, before his son responded, he added, "You know, he's much younger than I expected."

Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around. People come into our lives for a reason, a season, or a lifetime. Embrace all equally.

What does consubstantial with the Father' mean?

Beginning Nov. 27, when Catholics recite the Nicene Creed at Sunday Mass, they profess that Jesus Christ is "God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father" rather than "one in Being with the Father."

What on earth does "consubstantial" mean? It turns out there's a good reason the Church wants Catholics to learn this word. Dominican Father Romanus Cessario, senior editor for Magnificat, unpacks its meaning in the Boston Pilot: For the last 40 years or so, Catholics have become accustomed to express their belief in the sameness of the Father and the Son by the expression, "one in Being with the Father." This translation came about because certain experts had the opinion that a literal translation of the Latin term "consubstantialem," that is, consubstantial, would be too unfamiliar to the everyday churchgoer. However, the expression "one in Being with the Father" does not translate "consubstantialem." The expression is too vague. Since God creates and sustains all that exists, everything in some sense can be said to be one in being with God. Not that everything is the divine nature but that everything outside of God remains dependent on the divine nature for its borrowed existence. The sameness that the Eternal Son enjoys with the Father is not like that. Instead, this sameness arises from the specific substance or nature of the Godhead. Catholic faith holds that each of the three Divine Persons share one and the same divine nature or substance. Just as the mystery of the Blessed Trinity stands at the heart of our belief, so also it grounds our salvation.

The Greek expression adopted at the Council of Nicaea is "homoousious," which is translated into English as "con-substantial." The Eternal Son, who was born of the Virgin Mary, is neither "like" the Father nor "practically the same substance" as the Father. The Eternal Son enjoys the very same substance as the Father. The Son possesses fully the Godhead of the Father. So today, the Church again confesses in the English rendition of the Creed that Jesus Christ is "consubstantial with the Father."
